Means of Work

- Preparing and publishing researches and legal studies.
- Implementing training programs on both levels, national and regional.
- Providing consultations in the field of international human rights law and national laws.
- Carrying out intellectual meetings and forums.
- Collaborating and coordinating with local, Arab, and international bodies, which have common interests; depending on equality, political impartiality, and scientific integrity.
- Publishing books, brochures, and magazines on human rights field.
- Establishing a library specialized on human rights.